Why JCMA?

JCMA was established in 2003 to provide opportunities for people of each of the Abrahamic faiths to explore interfaith dialogue within Australia's multicultural community. For those already committed to such dialogue, JCMA complements that commitment with a deeper understanding of Judaism, Christianity and Islam gained by engaging with, and learning from, one another.

Who is it for?

JCMA conferences are intended for anyone from one of the three Abrahamic faiths. Participants include men and women, academics, those working in support or welfare roles, tertiary students, and members and leaders of faith communities.

Where is it?

Conference Centre, Pallotti College
80 McNamaras Road, Millgrove
Melways Ref: Map 289 A2

The Centre is set in beautiful grounds with views across the Yarra Valley that provide a relaxing environment conducive to both personal reflection and warm, open meetings and discussions.

JCMA conferences offer participants a unique mix of studying, praying, contemplating, talking, sharing thoughts (and eating!) as we meet each other as people of faith in Australia.

Apart from Sunday Tasters, you are encouraged to be in residence for the full conference.

Sorry is indeed a hard word.

- What are the teachings of our faith when we do something wrong? How do we repent?
- How are these teachings expressed in prayer and individual actions?
- How do we forgive those who have done wrong to us?
- What should we do if our organised faith community does wrong to others?

The conference will explore these questions through panel discussions, individual speakers, and small-group interaction.

Small group discussions are an integral part of the JCMA conference program
