INVITATION!

The JCMA Women’s Conference invites Jewish, Christian and Muslim women who support the aims and purpose of the Conference to register their interest and to participate in this event. The number of participants is limited to 45 places. A balance of participants from Judaism, Christianity and Islam will be sought.

It is preferred and more beneficial that participants remain in residence for the full Conference which starts 1.00pm Sunday 23 February and concludes 3.00pm Tuesday 25 February 2014.

Registration: Sunday 12.00pm-1.00pm.

JCMA Women’s Conference Committee seeks a balance of women who are active in their congregations and communities: lay, clergy, academics, tertiary students and those involved in community work.

SUBSIDIES

Subsidies may be available for those needing financial assistance. Eligible applicants should be involved in interfaith relations in Australia. Those with a Concession Card, or otherwise in need of financial help are also eligible.

1. What would you like to gain from this Conference experience?
2. What do you think you can bring to this Conference?
3. What is your personal experience of women of other faiths?

This brief response should be included with your application.

To apply for a subsidy please contact:

Time is set aside for meditation, reflection and Muslim prayer during the conference.

The Program includes:

- Women’s Stories, Reflections & Spirituality
- How women of faith respond to the challenges of life
- How women of faith relate despite differing cultures and religions
- Personal experiences which portray aspects of: women’s faith and spirituality within their tradition; their place in their faith; contemporary life; and their hopes for the future of humanity
- Group discussion, songs, dance, art & culture

SUNDAY TASTER OPPORTUNITY

For several years now, the first day of the conference, which is always a Sunday, is developed around topics of interest to, and contributions from young women, but it is also intended in general for women who are unable to come to the full conference because of work or other commitments. It runs from 1.00pm-9.45pm. The cost of the Sunday program is $55, which includes dinner & the evening program. Cost without dinner is $35.

ABOUT “AMBERLEY”

The Edmund Rice Conference Centre known as “Amberley” is opposite Westerfolds Park just 25 Ks from the CBD and overlooks the Yarra River. It is set in gardens and rolling lawns that include a labyrinth, an all faiths chapel and a spacious balcony overlooking the river.

The conference rooms, dining room, bedrooms and facilities are modern and comfortable.

The fees are inclusive of all meals, linen and towels. Meals served at the Conference will be strictly vegetarian, and there will be no alcohol. Kosher food is available on request.
